GOATS' MILK FOR COUGHS

"Go to the Hills and drink goats' milk" was the prescription given by Dr. Bates of the Boston Dispensary for coughs, colds and bronchitis, but nowadays our local druggist, G. G. Engler, proprietor of the Boston Dispensary, has a non-secret constitutional remedy just as certain which can be taken right at home. It is called "Bates' Healing, medicinal extractives of cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron for the blood, and the nourishing properties of beef peptonate. It goes to the seat of the trouble, removes the cough and cures the cold. Vinol is a very reliable preparation.

Domestic Science Classes.

The sewing classes as well as cooking classes are greatly appreciated by the girls who are gathering each Saturday afternoon in the Natnatchug school kitchen to learn how to make coffee, make rice pudding and prepare the many simple foods that are nourishing and economical. These girls saw while the other twenty cook and then reverse in order that each may have a chance to give instruction. These are all girls who are in the Pratt Institute graduate domestic science teacher in charge of the class. It was given at first and to members of the normal school domestic science class. One girl said the other day that she had been in the kitchen for Christmas and New Year's to go, I could come to the cooking class, for you told me I could come then."

Wholesome Recreation.

It is because the children are so in need of wholesome recreation that we have spent time and energy in planning for those with whom we come in daily contact. They have grasped every suggestion for a good time, whatever the price they paid to earn it. All summer the children on Stone Row picked up papers and old cans trying to make the place clean in order that they might go on the picnic planned as a reward.

At the Christmas tree planned by the association three hundred girls and boys were given an orange, a stocking filled with popcorn and candy and a toy or game or book. It was a joy to see their wide-eyed wonder at the real Christmas tree and Santa in all his glory.

The Girls' society, which has about twenty members, has been very successful in its efforts to raise money for the association. The association at the present date has two hundred and six (206) sustaining members. There are twenty-eight society members and forty-one directors. The money secretary has received are as follows:

Reimbursements from the town $11.85
Received from infants' milk station $1.32
Received from membership $131.00
Received from society $48.00
Received from donations $95.20
$1,015.97

We are now drawing the association's year to close, taking the best from the old year, we face the new with faith that our usefulness will be developing day by day, always to make our spirit worthy of our opportunity.

Re-election.

The old officers have all re-elected. They are: President, St. Eugene Lincoln; first vice president, W. O. Norris; second vice president, H. Dion; third vice president, James Hurley; treasurer, Pierre Laramie.

After giving a vote of thanks to the excellent secretary, Mrs. Nancy J. Allen for her splendid work during the ten months of existence of the organization, the meeting adjourned shortly before 9 o'clock.

D. A. R. SOCIAL.

Annual Midwinter Event Given by Anna Elderklin Chapter.

The annual midwinter social of the Anna Elderklin chapter, D. A. R., was held in the assembly room of the Congregational church, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The rooms were very prettily decorated for the occasion and the tables, daintily with cut flowers and beautiful linen, were scattered about the room, while at the long table in the hospital a while ago, it was too much of a strain. The girl's head ached and she was able to get a second-hand bread mixer, which the boys can turn. Now they have good good bread made at 9¢ cents for ten days' supply instead of baker's bread at 15¢ a week.

A man had been in jail, when he had served his time he was given work in the country near. He was earning but contributing nothing to the support of his family. His boys were in need and the trustee officer reported that they were out of school because of lack of shoes and food. That the town supply these. After some inquiries he telephoned to the father's employer who took up the question with the father—the next day seven dollars were received by the mother for the boys' clothing and again the responsibility was put on the right shoulders.

Many troubles of this nature have been adjusted simply by a little time and sympathetic thought. But perhaps sending money is as helpful a kind of work as we have been able to do. We have lent for glasses, shoes, etc., receiving in payment small amounts at a time, in this way helping the families' name off the town book.

The association has had under its supervision during these ten months 120 families, not including the families reached through the town supply. Both sides, nor those represented in the Girls' society, it has been able to find employment for 18 persons. Both sides and effort have been spent in this way with not any too satisfactory results.

The Town Work.

The association's work has many sides, but the one devoted to the town's dependent families is perhaps the most important. This work is under the constant supervision of the association and their mental, moral and spiritual welfare receive the secretary's heartfelt interest. $561.75 worth of groceries have been received in the last ten months ago; $49 have been spent on shoes. The secretary making each purchase is sure that the shoes are durable and practical. The money spent for milk. All hospital cases are being investigated by the secretary, as well as other institutional cases.

The Infants' Milk Station.

The benefit of the milk station is hard to estimate, as the committee is interested not only in keeping babies alive but in giving them the right start that they may develop into a healthy maturity. Children properly nourished stand a better chance of keeping out of the hospital house than the sickly, ill-nourished babies. The nurse found the mothers ready to learn and willing to help. The nurse found how to recognize symptoms and when to call a doctor as well as how to feed and bathe the babe. Many of our mothers wrapped their babies in swaddling clothes and covered them with feather ticks, but before the three months' work was over they had adopted American methods. At first it was hard to make them understand the value of the weekly conferences, but the many helpful suggestions which they carried home proved the value of these conferences and the mothers were quick to spread the news.

One hundred and sixty-nine babies have been examined and seventy-three were under the nurse's constant supervision. Dr. Simons gave his time every Thursday afternoon when the babies were examined and referred to the family physician if necessary.

The certified milk was sold from the station at a price varying with the family income. It was cooled in ice and carried to the babies in a tin containing enough ice to keep it through the day. One thousand two hundred and eighty-three quarts were sold during the year. While we cannot estimate the far-reaching results of the milk station, records show that the babies for the three months was reduced half.

Relatives in town of Richard Connelly have received word from England that he has been injured recently while fighting in the English army. He formerly worked here in the Lorton mills but left for England just before the outbreak of the war. Before coming to America, he had served in the English army during the early stages of the war which was practically cut to pieces and annihilated during fierce fighting in France, only a few members of the regiment surviving the dreadful ordeal. It was also learned of the death of Mr. Connelly's brother, who was killed in a recent battle.

MAN JOURNEYS 8,000

Mining Engineer, with a Broken Back, Brought from Natal, South Africa.

Roselawn, Ind., Jan. 11.—A journey of 8,000 miles in a basket was ended here today when C. C. Smith, a mining engineer of Natal, South Africa, arrived at the home of his parents.

He suffered a broken back in a mine accident and is paralyzed from the waist down, but nevertheless will wed Miss Amy Palmer, an English nurse who cared for him in a hospital in Cardiff, Wales, and helped bring him home.

Smith and a companion were repairing machinery in the South African workings. A huge rock fell, killing his companion and injuring Smith. The company started him home, appropriating $25,000 for the surgical and other expenses of the trip. The journey was broken at Cardiff, so that the injured man might receive special medical attention and it was there that he met Miss Palmer. Because of the size of the basket in which Smith traveled it was necessary to take on the windows of railroad coaches to get him aboard the train.
